Description

Rarely does a property this close to Asheville offer the combination of acreage, long-range Blue Ridge views, open pasture, flowing water, and multiple homesite opportunities. Whether you envision a private mountain estate, equestrian property, family compound, working farm, or long-term land investment, this 28-acre tract provides the flexibility to create something truly exceptional. Located just minutes from Asheville, the property offers privacy and natural beauty without sacrificing convenience. A true birder’s paradise, it is home to a variety of native species and well-worn deer trails weave throughout the landscape. The diverse terrain includes rolling meadows, forests, and a gently flowing stream, creating a peaceful and picturesque setting. Despite its seclusion, this property is conveniently located just a short drive from Asheville’s vibrant dining, shopping, and cultural scene. Whether you dream of a mountain getaway, an equestrian property, or a homestead, this land offers an unparalleled opportunity to embrace nature while staying close to modern conveniences. Don’t miss this rare chance to own a pristine piece of land.
