Description

A combination of three platted mountain-view lots totaling 10.24 acres offer a rare opportunity to create a private estate, family compound, or future investment in Henderson County's Hidden Valley community. Existing road beds and trails provide access throughout the property, while multiple homesites allow flexibility for immediate building or long-term planning. Conveniently located between Hendersonville, Lake Lure, Chimney Rock, and Asheville, this property combines privacy, recreation, and future potential. Enjoy the local vineyards, apple orchards, and mountain adventures. This property is ready to enjoy, build upon, or hold as a mountain investment.
